

Kim Hagerty, MA, LCPC, PSCG is the Assistant Director of the Family Ministries Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago. She received her BA from the University of Illinois at Chicago, and earned her Masters in Counselor Education at Northeastern Illinois University. She is a licensed counselor and has a professional certificate in Spiritual Gerontology and Lifelong Faith Formation from the Johnson Institute. She is a writer, editor, and online media coordinator. She is heavily involved in developing and implementing the new online marriage prep program, www.catholicmarriageprepclass.com.

The oldest of seven, Kim grew up on the northwest side of Chicago and is a graduate of St. Scholastica Academy. She received her BA from the University of Illinois at Chicago and earned her Masters in Counselor Education from Northeastern Illinois University.

Kim and her husband, Pat, have been married since 1978 and have two adult children, Kelly (married to Jake) and Patrick. They lost their oldest daughter, Beth, to a rare disease when she was six years old. She and Pat are supporters of Misericordia Home and are members of St. Celestine parish. Kim is also a proud member of the Morton Arboretum and the Betsy-Tacy Society.

