	The road to success is always under construction.			A good marriage is one which allows for change and growth in the individuals and in the way they express their love.
	A successful marriage requires falling in love many times, always with the same person.			The important thing is being capable of emotions, but to experience only one's own would be a sorry limitation.
	Happy marriages begin when we marry the ones we love, and they blossom when we love the ones we marry.			It is not a lack of love, but a lack of friendship that makes unhappy marriages.
	Love at first sight is easy to understand; it's when two people have been looking at each other for a lifetime that it becomes a miracle.			Marriage is that relation between man and woman in which the independence is equal, the dependence mutual, and the obligation reciprocal.
	It takes two to make a marriage a success, and only one to make it a failure.			Qualities of a Relationship
	Chains do not hold a marriage together. It is threads, hundreds of tiny threads that which sew people together through the years. That is what makes a marriage last.			The goal in marriage is not to think alike, but to think together.
