

Valentín Araya, Mdiv Leader and Educator

Associate Director for the Family Ministries Office, Archdiocese of Chicago. He holds a Masters Degree in Divinity from CTU (Catholic Theological Union). He is knowledgeable in Theology, Philosophy, Spirituality and Neuro-Linguistic Programming. Has more than 13 years of experience in marriage ministry in the Hispanic community. Creator of Alfa and Omega program that serves Hispanic couples and their families in the Chicago area. He has taken this program to other states such as: Wisconsin, Michigan, Tennessee, Arizona, Indiana and Celaya, Guanajuato in Mexico. He is a great conference presenter and retreat for couples and adults preacher. He has a dynamic personality and has great leadership and public speaking skills. As his personal mission he has adopted the promotion of harmony, peace, and personal growth among Hispanics. Valentin is married to Betty and is the father of Brian, 13 and Lissette, 11 years old.

